

Dear Sirs'

I am commenting on the proposed use of broadband transmission on power lines throughout the country. The interference caused by this means of transmission will be detrimental to the amateur bands.

I understand that this was tried in Japan and was discontinued because of the interference to other services.

Please do not allow braoad band transmission on power lines.

Sincerely, Wilbert Bregar wa7oec